

New York Archives Conference 2007

(Formerly Lake Ontario Archives Conference)
Annual Conference Program, June 13-15, 2007
Canisius College, Buffalo, NY

The conference is underwritten with support from Eloquent Systems, Gaylord, Hollinger Corporation, Hudson Microimaging, and University Products

New Scholarship Opportunity: NYAC will award six $100 scholarships with preference given to archives students, volunteers, and first-time conference attendees. Please see the qualifications and application form at the end of the program (p. 10 & 11).

Wednesday, June 13, 2007: Workshops: (there will be mid-morning and mid-afternoon breaks)

Registration & Continental Breakfast: 8:30 - 9:00 (Andrew L. Bouwhuis Library, 1st Floor)

Workshop 1: 9:00 - 11:45, 1:30 - 4:00 “Creating A Community History” (full day)
Chair: Jenny Rosenzweig, Program Coordinator, Upstate History Alliance & Regional Archivist, South Central Documentary Heritage Program

Presenters: Sylvia Kelly, Coordinator - CAMPS, Geneseo Migrant Center; Ellen McHale, Executive Director, New York Folklore Society; Elizabeth Marotta, Education Coordinator, The Museum of Disability History

Workshop Description: The documentation of a community’s history is vital to the preservation of its story for future generations. Each person, each story, and each business lends itself to the greater story of New York State and beyond. Participants will gain the basics needed to develop community history projects. Workshop sessions include an examination of the resources available to local history researchers; a discussion of the importance of documenting local business and under-documented communities; an overview of how to conduct an oral history project; and much more!

This workshop has been developed by the Upstate History Alliance, a non profit museum and historical society service organization located in upstate New York.

Limited to 20 attendees on a first come first serve basis. There will be morning and afternoon breaks, lunch is on your own. A list of restaurants close by will be provided. The College also has a Wednesday lunch barbecue.

Registration for Workshop 2: 1:00 – 1:30 (Andrew L. Bouwhuis Library, 2nd Floor)

Workshop 2: 1:30 – 5:00 “Teachers’ Needs/Record Holders’ Outreach: Designing Student Learning Experiences That Engage The Student/How Records Holders Can Reach Teachers And Students” (half day)

Chair: Brenda Parnes, Regional Advisory Officer, Region-1, NY State Archives

Instructors: Larry Slanovich and Amy Schaper, Teachers, Yorkshire Pioneer Central School District, Mark Lozo, Chief of Interpretation/Education Director, Theodore Roosevelt Inaugural Site, and Doug DeCroix, Education Coordinator, Old Fort Niagara.

Larry Slanovich and Amy Schaper will describe the Pioneer Central School’s work with the NY State Archives over the past ten years to develop lessons that have become part of the school’s curriculum. They will outline the process and explain the components of the program, including how New York State Education Department Standards were integrated into the program. Local historians, government agencies, field trips and Internet resources including the New York State Archives website are used to enhance the program. This project based approach includes a student summer enrichment program and teacher workshops to assist in the design and implementation of lessons. Examples of lessons and student projects will be presented during the session. Mark Lozo of the Theodore Roosevelt Inaugural Site will speak on “Using a Document-Based Program to Unveil the Birthplace of the American Presidency.” Doug DeCroix of Old Fort Niagara will discuss “Bringing Artifacts and Documents into the Classroom Via Distance Learning Technology”

Limit to the first 20 participants register. There will be a mid-afternoon break, lunch is on your own. A list of restaurants close by will be provided. The College also has a Wednesday lunch barbecue.

Tours 2:00-4:00

Tour 1: Forest Lawn Cemetery (free)

The cemetery is part of Buffalo’s extensive Frederick Law Olmstead Parks System, and permanent residence to the likes of US President Millard Fillmore, Frank Lloyd Wright’s Blue Sky Mausoleum, Buffalo-native and Funk Punkster, Rick James, Talor Caldwell, William Fargo of Wells-Fargo fame, Red Jacket, the great Seneca orator, and thousands of others. The cemetery grounds are well-noted for attracting numerous species of birds. Bring your binoculars! <<http://www.forest-lawn.com/>>

Tour 2: Darwin Martin House Designed By Frank Lloyd Wright ($13.00 with a minimum of 15 participants or the tour will be cancelled. Please include payment for this tour in your registration fee to NYAC.)

Frank Lloyd Wright's greatest "Prairie House," the five-structure Darwin Martin House Complex, designed and built 1903-1905 in the great city of Buffalo, New York. . The Darwin D. Martin House Complex is Frank Lloyd Wright's most extensive Prairie House ever. Only once in Wright's 72-year career as a practicing architect did he have the opportunity to design - as an integrated whole composition - a complex interwoven into a richly designed landscape.

Tour 3: Buffalo Public Library Buffalo & Erie County Central Library, Grosvenor Room And Mark Twain Room. (free)

The rare book collection in the Grosvenor Room consists of significant collections of Americana, early printed books, Bibles, Shaker literature, juvenile titles, anti-slavery literature, local history (including pre-Civil War Buffalo imprints and pre-1852 Buffalo newspapers), Roycroft publication and more than 5,000 literary and historic manuscripts and letters. The room also contains the Milestones of Science, one of the first rare book collections in an American public library. The Milestones contain 196 of Western history's most significant works of science and technology printed up to the early 20th century.

The Mark Twain Room is the home of Twain's original handwritten manuscript, Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. Twain was an active member of the Buffalo and Erie County Public Library's predecessor, the Young Men's Association and honored the Library with the manuscript of what is viewed by many as the greatest American novel. In 1885, Twain donated the second half of Huckleberry Finn, believing the first half had been lost by a printer. In 1991, the missing portion of the manuscript was discovered in a small steamer trunk in a Los Angeles attic. See and hear the history of this priceless literary masterpiece on public display in the heart of the room. Visit the library at: <http://www.buffalolib.org/libraries/collections/>

Tour 4: Niagara Falls ... On Your Own. But we'll have plenty of information to tantalize you!
